Pirates Celebrate Victorious Homecoming

It was a cold but beautiful Friday evening on the 2nd day of October in 1987 when Marcy Line was crowned Homecoming Queen during the pre-game ceremonies. The Pirate football team played a terrific game, dominating over the West Liberty Salem Tigers both with points and team spirit. The game ended victoriously for the Pirates with the score 26-6 shining on the scoreboard.

The Homecoming celebrations were continued the next evening with the Homecoming Dance.

Success With Sales

The Riverside Junior class "surprised and elated" the students and faculty by reaching and exceeding their goal of $12,500 by hitting $14,120. Karen Weiskittle led the class as top salesperson.

The class was divided into two sections. Adams to Lellet (Co-Captains — Mark Crockett and Leslie Davis) and Line to Wray (Co-Captains — Susan Shoe and Matt Snow). Each team had a goal of $6,250. The first few days were slow getting started, but they gained momentum during the week. Thirty-one people sold over $150.

After the sales were completed the winning team, by a narrow margin, was Line to Wray. The team Adams to Lellet had the job of preparing and serving the Turkey Dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Smithers' farm on October 29th.

1) Karen Weiskittle receives the plaque for top salesperson. Karen reached the second highest dollar amount in Riverside history.

3) Kellea Ward's name was drawn from the top ten salespeople. She received the Polaroid Camera. Karen, the other winner, received a basketball hoop.

2) Kevin helps Tara, a member of the "A" team, serve the "B" team. 4) After the feast the Juniors received their awards. 5) Ryan leads his wary prey through the haunted barn. 6) Brave souls prepare to meet the headless horseman on the hayride following the dinner and awards presentation.

Riverside Juniors Present —

PICK A BOY . . .

ANY BOY

Of all the teenagers using Mr. Frederick's garage as a clubhouse, Karen is the only girl without a steady boyfriend. The answer to Karen's dilemma arrives in the person of Nancy, a devilish girl. She offers Karen to give up her soul for the boy she wants. Nancy soon finds out that Karen is different and she is hard to bargain with.

Karen's first choice Mike, turns out to be too egotistical, and her second choice Bobby is quickly rejected when she can't overcome her guilt of stealing him from her friend Lynn. Next, Nancy offers Karen three million dollars for her soul and her final offer is "The Perfect Man".

Riverside Seniors Present . . .

On March 5, 1988 the Senior Class presented 2 comedy plays. A one act play "Along Came Harriet" was performed by 6 senior girls about life in a college dorm. A three act play entitled "Grandma's Best Years" was performed by 16 seniors about a woman, Mrs. Abbott, who is trying to get into society and ruin the lives of her 3 children.

Due to the weather the casts were unable to perform a second night. Both plays were under the direction of Linda Greek.

The Class of 88 Presents "STV"

For their last performance at RHS the seniors put on their version of MTV re-named as STV — Senior Television. The night was filled with many varieties of entertainment and was enjoyed by everyone on and off stage. Awards and recognitions were announced after the entertainment. It was a tearful good-bye for the class while they sang their class song, "Honestly", and handed white roses to their parents.

If it is to be . . . it is up to me.

At two o'clock Sunday, May 29, in the hot crowded gymnasium the piano started its song and two by two the graduates proceeded into the gym to take their places. When everyone was in their place Reverend Leroy Hughes gave the Baccalaureate sermon urging the seniors not to forget God and to remember all that their parents had done for them.

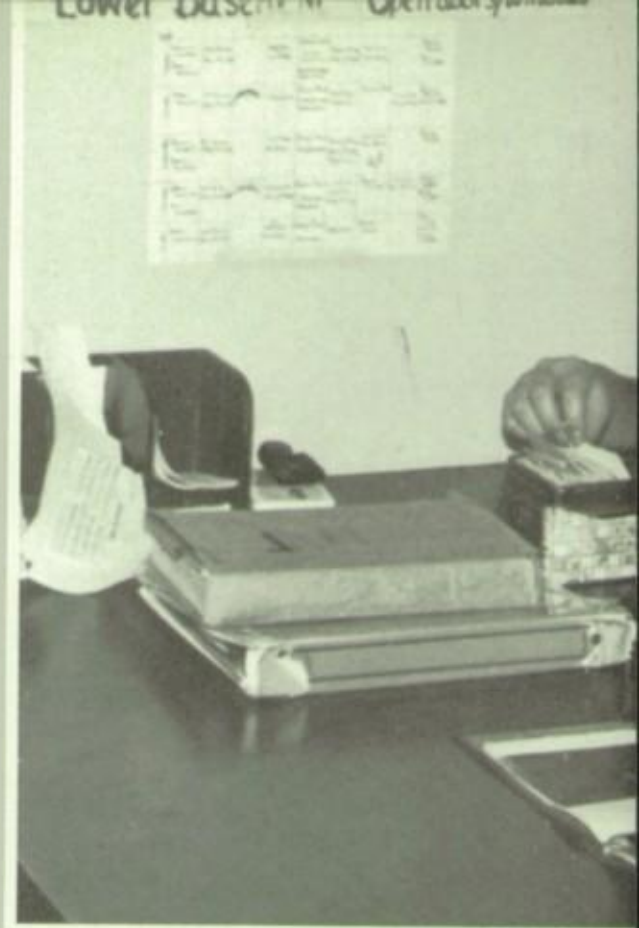

After Rev. Hughes gave his message Mrs. Linda Long Howat, a Riverside Alumni was introduced. Mrs. Howat, Asst. Director of Special Programs — University of Wisconsin-Whitewater reminisced about our high school when she attended it in 1968. She spoke of the forces prevalent in each persons life and asked the seniors to remember one motto — It is to be . . . it is up to me. She urged them to apply those ten two letter words in their lives.

Special awards and honors were announced before the handing out of diplomas. Pictured are Surena Evans — Valedictorian and Jenny Quay — Salutatorian.

The coach commented at the beginning of the season that there were too many young, inexperienced ball players on the team this year. The team had goals set and they didn't seem to be out of reach. The Pirates ended the season with a 5 - 3 WCOC record and 5 - 5 over-all, receiving a 4th place standing in the league.

Students Form New Organization — SADD

to be sharing a vital message

Posters, meetings, discussions, spreading the word, and raising student awareness kept the members of the new organization, SADD, quite busy. Students Against Drunk Driving reached out to people in the school and the community in an effort to help people know the value of their lives and the importance of not driving if they have been drinking, and not riding with someone who has been drinking. Mrs. Smithers is the faculty supervisor of the organization.

The Annual staff and journalism class has had (let's hear it one more time) a FIRST CLASS time putting this yearbook together.

We hope you enjoy looking through the 1988 Pirate Log and sharing the memories of the 1987 — 88 school year. It took many late hours, pizzas and a whole lot of fun to put them together for you. We would like to extend a special thankyou to Jenny Quay for her extra time she spent as photographer, Studio Expressions for all their help, the community businesses who support the book, and everyone else who was a part of the successful completion of the yearbook. (This includes everyone who purchased programs for the boys' football and basketball games!)

Congratulations to the Class of '88 — we wish you the best of everything.

The 1988 Annual Staff
Amy Hughes — Editor
Susan Shoe — Asst. Editor

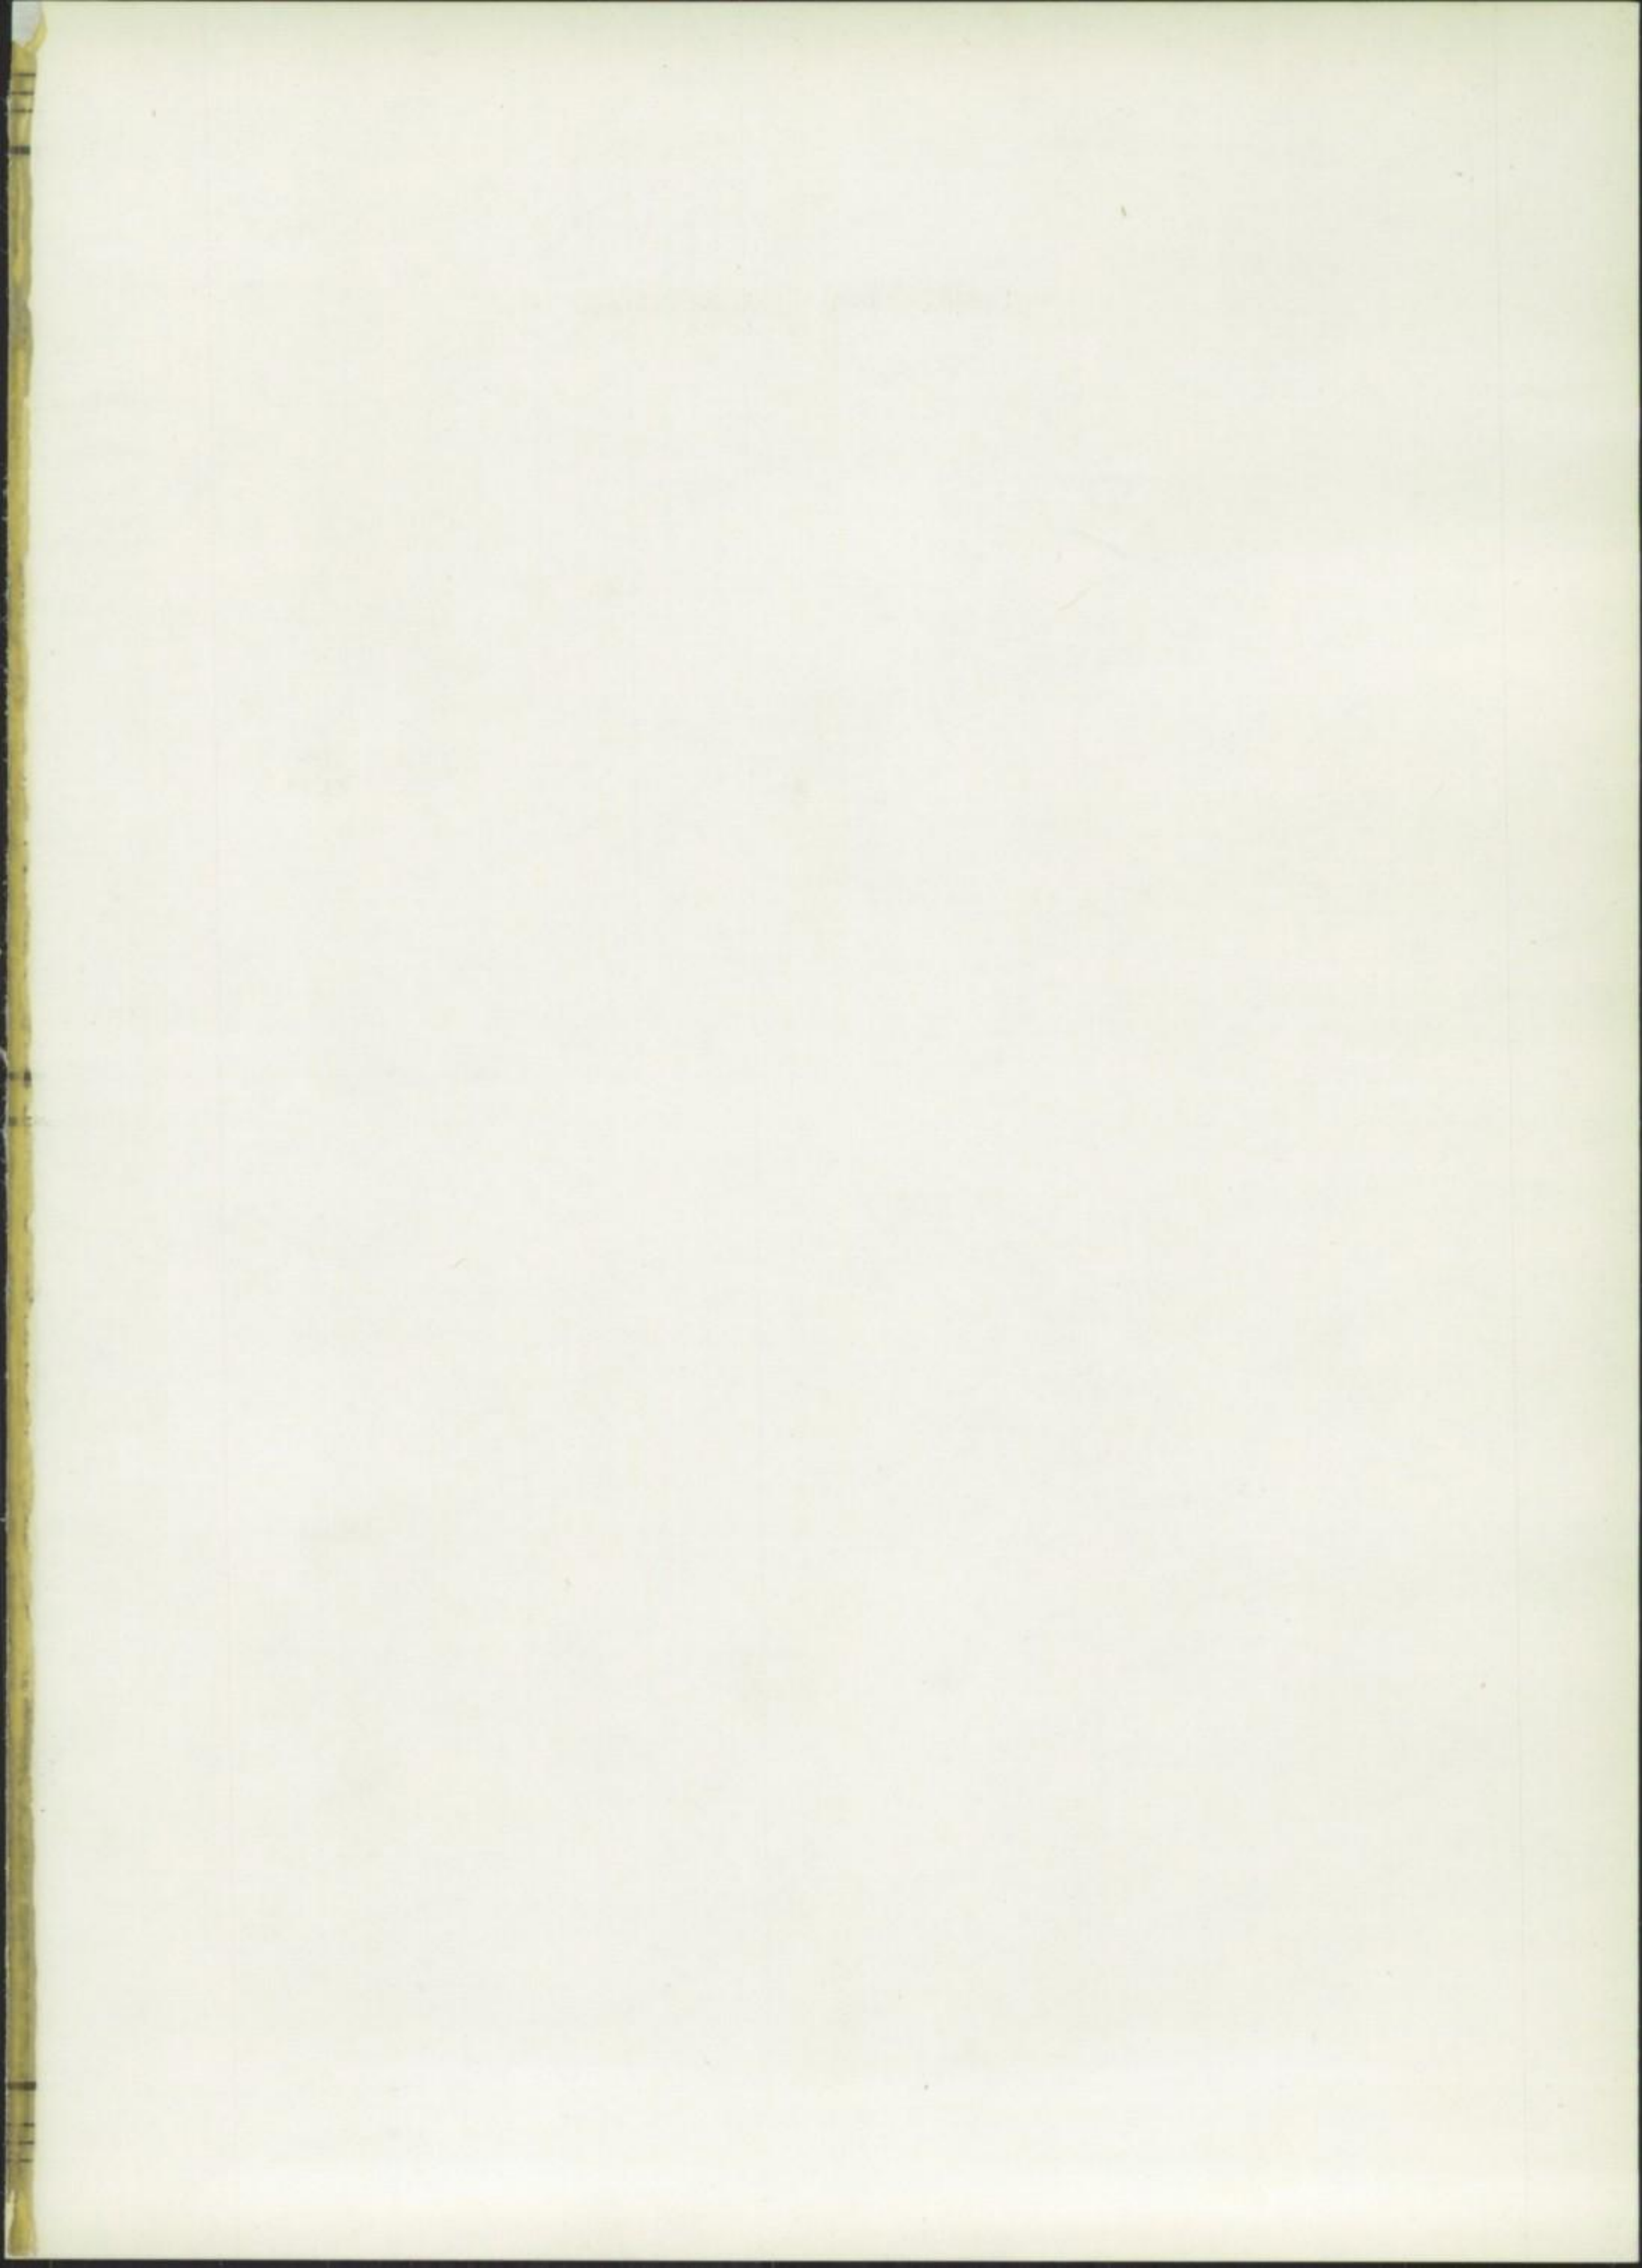

We appreciate the time and effort the people of donate to help with the pictures for the yearbook and the senior class composite.

STUDIO EXPRESSIONS
